New Minister Here
Rev. L. A. Pfaff is the minister of the Pentecostal Holiness Church in Appomattox. The new church building is located on Route 460, across from the Carver-Price High School. Rev. Pfaff is a graduate of Holmes Bible College, an interdenominal college in Greenville, S. C. After graduating, he taught English for three years at Holmes. In the spring of 1955, Mr. Pfaff received his B. A. from Furman University, one of the oldest Baptist schools of the South. Leaving for Pennsylvania that year, he taught English grammar in the public schools and pastored a small church.

The church has stationed Rev. Pfaff to head this new work the first of January. Rev. Pfaff, his wife, and child, are living on Evergreen Street. Rev. Pfaff states that the Bible is the Word of God and our only guide in this life.

Those who wish to hear Bible preaching are invited to the church services.
